

FRYER, SHUSTER & LESTER, P.C.

Firm Resume

Fryer, Shuster & Lester, P.C. is a general practice law firm located in the Perimeter Center area in north Atlanta.

While the Firm maintains a general business and estate practice, its lawyers have developed their own areas of specialization. These areas include corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, covenants not to compete, franchise law, real estate, estate planning, federal taxation, health care law, commercial litigation, domestic relations and personal injury and product liability litigation. Attorneys of the Firm have lectured and published articles in their respective areas of expertise.

The Firm's clientele consists of professionals, executives, closely held businesses and publicly traded companies. The focus of the Firm's activities is to assist its clients in their financial, business and legal affairs by maintaining an overview of the client's situation and by then applying the Firm's particular expertise in its specialty areas of law.

The client's needs are always the first interest of the Firm, and the Firm prides itself on giving prompt attention to those needs. The Firm's success results directly from maintaining strong personal and professional relationships with its clients and with other professional advisors. These relationships are strengthened by the Firm's continual efforts to provide legal services of the highest quality at reasonable prices to its clients.
